Notes

1.The local numbers on which foreign numbers are registered can receive both local and international calls but they can make only nternational calls.

2.The subscriber is obliged to keep the foreign telephone number of "International Numbers" facility for 12 consecutive months from the date of order completion.

3. For "Business Telephony for PBX" service the subscriber is solely responsible for the registration of the foreign country telephone number on his PBX, to assign the specific "International Number" to be displayed when making outgoing calls. For "Business Telephony" service Cyta is responsible to assign the specific "International Number" to be displayed when making outgoing calls to the foreign country.

4. For further details about "International Numbers" facility, the connection and monthly subscription fees and the calling charges contact free of charge the Business Customer Call Centre on "150" or call your Business Consultant.
